

Monday March 19: Rev Faith Fowler Tiny Homes & Other Programs Making a Big Impact

Reverend Faith Fowler is Senior Pastor of Cass Community United Methodist Church and Executive Director of Cass Community Social Services [CCSS], a non-profit that provides food, healthcare, housing and employment to those suffering from poverty in Detroit.

She will report on the progress of the “Tiny Homes” community in the Cass Corridor, an effort that will allow homeless to rent and eventually own a home. Other CCSS programs include “Empty Bowls” for the hungry and “Cass Green Industries” which creates jobs and promotes sustainability.

Please mark your calendars and come learn how this remarkable woman’s innovative ways are changing the landscape of Detroit.
