

The Grosse Pointe Public School System presents the

GPPSS Diversity Plan

in an evening dedicated to “RAISING GLOBAL LEADERS”
RESCHEDULED for Wednesday, April 12 · 7-8:30 p.m.

Pierce Middle School Auditorium · 15430 Kercheval Avenue, Grosse Pointe Park

Join us for a discussion of the new Grosse Pointe Public School System Diversity Plan and how our state, county and community are addressing diversity to lead to unity and #OneGP.

AGENDA

- GPPSS Director of Elementary Education Keith Howell and Director of Secondary Education Maureen Bur present the district Diversity Plan
- Panel of experts with local ties answer questions moderated by non-partisan League of Women Voters
  - Dr. Agustin Arbulu – Michigan Department of Civil Rights
  - Greg Bowens – local parent/NAACP
  - Barry Checkoway – University of Michigan
  - Anthony Lewis – Michigan Department of Civil Rights
  - Mark McInerney – Clark-Hill attorney for GPPSS
  - Gary C. Niehaus – Grosse Pointe Public School System Superintendent
  - Ginni Winters – Wayne County RESA Educational Consultant
- Q and A from the audience using the League format
- Also in attendance will be GPPSS principals, local municipal and faith leaders, heads of public safety

For more information, visit www.gpschools.org or <http://grossepointe.mi.lwvnet.org>

